

Behaviour Teaching and Learning in Education Settings

In this workshop we will delve into themes including the contemporary paradigm for behaviour development and management for children; non-blame ways of guiding and managing children's behaviour; practical systems, processes, and strategies essential for behaviour development and management.

Children with Challenging Behaviours

In this workshop we will learn more about why children choose challenging behaviours; being non-coercive in relationships with children whose behaviour is challenging; system wide approaches to challenging behaviours; particular instructional processes for children with challenging behaviours.

Conflict Resolution with Children

In this workshop we will look into themes including child focused conflict resolution systems, processes, and skills necessary to become effective social problems solvers; conflict coaching; peaceful and constructive ways of resolving conflicts with children; harmonious ways for children to resolve their own conflicts.

Take a Stand, Lend a Hand. Stop Bullying Now.

This is an informative and highly practical workshop for staff wanting to support children respond positively to bullying incidents – and in the process create harmonious and safe environments for all.

We will discuss the impact of bullying behaviours, characteristics of those involved in bullying incidents and factors contributing to power over behaviour. We will explore why, how and what to teach children so they learn smart responsible ways of responding to bullying incidents – as bully, victim, peer bystander.

Emotion Fitness with Children

In this workshop we will investigate the practicalities of developing children's emotional literacy and emotional expression competencies; teaching children to regulate their own emotions; emotion management toolkits; tools for children to include in their emotion management toolkits.

Young Children's Social Behaviour

In this workshop we will explore evidence based non-blame approach to supporting the development of young children's social behaviours. We will learn about systems, processes, procedures and strategies directed towards supporting children develop responsibility for their behaviour choices.

It's Time for You! ME Time

This workshop is dedicated to individuals struggling with prioritizing the care of themselves above the care of others. Striving to get back on track in the self care stakes, these individuals need inspiration, guidance and direction in nurturing themselves. This workshop provides exactly this – a direction for living that highlights practical, simple and easy on the pocket ways to nurture oneself.
